

PROSPECTUS

Faces of Our Community: Tri-Valley Non-profits through Photography

Livermore Valley Arts presents an exhibition called Faces of Our Community: Tri-Valley Non-profits through Photography at the UNCLE Credit Union Art Gallery May 23 through August 4, 2024.

Using the medium of photography, this exhibit reveals the impactful work and the human stories behind the many Tri-Valley non-profits that contribute to the well-being and fabric of our Tri-Valley community. We are seeking images where the photographers, with a keen eye for storytelling, document the diverse spectrum of non-profit initiatives, ranging from environmental conservation and social justice to healthcare and education and the arts. Through powerful visual storytelling, we are seeking works that highlight the collaborative efforts that bind communities together, showcasing the transformative impact of collective action. We are looking to invite visitors to the exhibit to not only appreciate the aesthetic qualities of the photographs but also to engage with the narratives they convey.
